

Monty Harper
“Wacky Witty Wet-n-Wild Songs”

Calendar Blurb:

Yo, ho, ho and a barrel of fun! Monty Harper will "make a splash at your library" this summer with his "Wacky Witty Wet-n-Wild Songs." Monty's interactive program engages preschool through fifth grade kids and families. His original songs celebrate reading and libraries and will take young bookaneers on many rollicking adventures, from the depths of the jungle to the deep blue sea!

Seating Suggestions:

Two or three rows of chairs in back, floor space in front. Please encourage parents and kids to sit together when possible.

Suggested Introduction:

Monty Harper is an award-winning children's songwriter from Stillwater, OK. He has several CDs, which are available after the program. This summer is Monty's twentieth summer to do library performances! He loves books and reading and libraries. Please welcome Monty Harper with his Wacky Witty Wet-n-Wild Songs!
